

The GoHome Networks, Inc. Privacy Policy

GoHome is committed to respecting our customer's privacy. Once you choose to provide personally identifiable information, it will only be used in the context of your customer relationship with GoHome. GoHome will not sell, rent, or lease your personally identifiable information to others. Unless required by law or your prior permission is obtained, GoHome will only share the personal data you provide with other GoHome entities and/or business partners who are acting on GoHome's behalf to provide you services. Such GoHome entities and/or national or international business partners are governed by GoHome's privacy policies with respect to the use of this data.

Collection / Use of Information

GoHome shall collect and use customer identifiable information for billing, provisioning of service, to solve problems associated with service, and to inform customers of new products or services that will better meet their needs. GoHome will use customer identifiable information to market products and services to the customer, but will not disclose or make available any customer identifiable information to any third parties seeking to market products. If a customer chooses not to participate in direct marketing of new products and services from GoHome, that customer's information will not be used for the purpose of marketing new products.

Cookies

GoHome may utilize "cookies" in its information gathering process in order to improve the quality of the GoHome website and as well as the quality of customer interaction with GoHome throughout the ordering, provisioning, and billing process. Customers may choose to block the use of such "cookies," though that may make interaction with GoHome less efficient and could limit the availability of certain website features.

Security

GoHome takes all reasonable steps to ensure that all information we collect, use or disclose is accurate, complete, up-to-date and stored in a secure environment accessed only by authorized persons.

Unlawful Activity

GoHome may use customer identifiable information to investigate and help prevent potentially unlawful activity or activities that threaten the integrity of service or network integrity or otherwise violate GoHome's Terms of Service. GoHome may provide personally identifiable information in response to subpoenas and other legal demands, and where GoHome believes that disclosing the information is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against individuals who may be interfering with GoHome's property or services or our customers' use of them, or endangering public safety.

Account Information

GoHome will do its best to honor requests from customers for account information, for example, name, address, company, or billing information. The customer is responsible for ensuring that the information on file with GoHome is current and accurate.

Children's Privacy Policy

GoHome does not sell products or services for purchase by children. GoHome does not knowingly solicit or collect customer identifiable information from children or teenagers under the age of eighteen. In addition, GoHome will not knowingly link to any third party web site that solicits or collects customer identifiable information from minors. If you believe that a minor has disclosed personally identifiable information to GoHome, please contact us so that the information can be removed.

GoHome Spam Policy

Use of GoHome services and facilities for spamming purposes is strictly prohibited. Misuse of GoHome's facilities may result in the loss of GoHome service.
